

Who we are...

Unity House is the creative and community arts collaboration of the Unitarian Universalist Society of Greater Springfield. We bring people together through meaningful, value-driven artistic expression—asking big questions, uplifting diverse voices, and fostering connection, joy, and growth.

Nestled in the wooded heart of Springfield, MA, we present quality performances and workshops in an intimate, flexible, and tech-forward space. Accessible and innovative, we invite artists and audiences alike to explore, experiment, experience, and enjoy the arts in fresh, inspiring ways.

Each production entertains hundreds of audience members and builds community amongst multiple towns, ages, genders, and diversity of folks. You can be an important part of making it happen!
