BAPTISM IS NOT OPTIONAL OBEDIENCE; IT IS PUBLIC _____.

ASSOCIATION vs. IDENTIFICATION

There's a difference between wearing a jersey and actually being on the _____.

Baptism is a declaration of who _____ your life.

WHAT BAPTISM MEANS

Romans 6:3–4

Baptism is not magic water — it is a visible _____.

When someone goes under the water, they are saying: I HAVE _____.

When they come up, they are saying: I HAVE BEEN _____.

Baptism declares: My old life is not under renovation — it is _____.

We don't get resurrection without _____.

Baptism says: I am DONE _____ my own life.

Repent — then be _____ . (Acts 2:38)

Faith must be _____.

WHY IT MATTERS

If Jesus _____ it, why would we delay it?

Baptism is not a suggestion — it is part of _____.

Faith cannot be inherited — it must be _____.

Delayed obedience is still _____.

WHAT IT REQUIRES

Colossians 2:12 — raised with Him THROUGH _____.

Faith without obedience is _____.

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN BAPTIZED

Baptism wasn't the finish line — it was the _____ of the old self.

Romans 6:11

Consider yourselves dead to _____ and alive to _____.

Baptism is a one-time event with _____ implications.

Every day we say:

That old self is still _____.

And I will walk in _____ of life.

SO WHAT?

If you belong to Christ and have never been baptized — what is _____ you?

Baptism is not about perfect people — it is about _____ people.

Buried with Christ. Raised to _____.

Have we declared who owns our _____?

And are we living like it?
