

Week 1: 5 Biblical Truths About Time and Productivity

Series: Redeeming Your Time

Key Verses: Luke 8:22–23; Ephesians 5:15–17; 1 Corinthians 15:58

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: We are commanded throughout scripture to “redeem our time.” Because “the days are evil” and we are running out of time to do the “will of the Lord.” If our aim is to redeem our time, it is imperative that we start with God’s word. Here are five things scripture says about time and our role in it.

Today, we begin a 5-week series called Redeeming Your Time. So how do we redeem our time?

- Read: Ephesians 5:15-17
- In Luke 8:22-23 demonstrates how Jesus is the ultimate solution to our time management problems.

Jesus offers you _____ before you do anything.

- Scripture teaches us grace-based productivity. By trusting in Jesus for the forgiveness of our sins, we have “peace with God” (Romans 5:1).

So what does scripture have to say about time and our role in it? These 5 Biblical Truths will help us to better understand.

Truth #1: Our longing for timelessness is _____ and God-given (Genesis 2:15).

- Something in our God-designed DNA tells us we were made for something more.

Truth #2: Sin has ensured we will _____ with unfinished business.

- When sin entered the world, death was ushered in alongside it. We see this in Genesis 3:17-19 and also see this in 1 Corinthians 15:21.
- Human beings, who were created to be immortal, became mortal.

Week 1: 5 Biblical Truths About Time and Productivity

Series: Redeeming Your Time

Key Verses: Luke 8:22–23; Ephesians 5:15–17; 1 Corinthians 15:58

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: We are commanded throughout scripture to “redeem our time.” Because “the days are evil” and we are running out of time to do the “will of the Lord.” If our aim is to redeem our time, it is imperative that we start with God’s word. Here are five things scripture says about time and our role in it.

Today, we begin a 5-week series called Redeeming Your Time. So how do we redeem our time?

- Read: Ephesians 5:15-17
- In Luke 8:22-23 demonstrates how Jesus is the ultimate solution to our time management problems.

Jesus offers you _____ before you do anything.

- Scripture teaches us grace-based productivity. By trusting in Jesus for the forgiveness of our sins, we have “peace with God” (Romans 5:1).

So what does scripture have to say about time and our role in it? These 5 Biblical Truths will help us to better understand.

Truth #1: Our longing for timelessness is _____ and God-given (Genesis 2:15).

- Something in our God-designed DNA tells us we were made for something more.

Truth #2: Sin has ensured we will _____ with unfinished business.

- When sin entered the world, death was ushered in alongside it. We see this in Genesis 3:17-19 and also see this in 1 Corinthians 15:21.
- Human beings, who were created to be immortal, became mortal.

Truth #3: God will _____ we leave unfinished.

- Our hope is found in Jesus Christ.
- What does this mean for us in the present?
- The Apostle Paul provides us some clues in 1 Corinthians 15:58, and in 1 Corinthians 3:9.
- We are God's co-workers.

Truth #4: The gospel is our source of _____ and ambition.

- The good news is God doesn't place our salvation on how productive we are.

Truth #5: We can _____ how God would manage his time.

- To redeem our time we must start with the Word: The author of time, His purposes for the world, and what He has called us to do with the time He has given us.
- Just carve out time to get to know Scripture, to see what God has to say about our time, and how we should spend it.

Ask Yourself These questions:

- What does it mean to redeem your time?
- Does God care how I spend my time?
- What new truths have I uncovered through these Scriptures?

What Is God Speaking to me today?:

Truth #3: God will _____ we leave unfinished.

- Our hope is found in Jesus Christ.
- What does this mean for us in the present?
- The Apostle Paul provides us some clues in 1 Corinthians 15:58, and in 1 Corinthians 3:9.
- We are God's co-workers.

Truth #4: The gospel is our source of _____ and ambition.

- The good news is God doesn't place our salvation on how productive we are.

Truth #5: We can _____ how God would manage his time.

- To redeem our time we must start with the Word: The author of time, His purposes for the world, and what He has called us to do with the time He has given us.
- Just carve out time to get to know Scripture, to see what God has to say about our time, and how we should spend it.

Ask Yourself These questions:

- What does it mean to redeem your time?
- Does God care how I spend my time?
- What new truths have I uncovered through these Scriptures?

What Is God Speaking to me today?:
