Dear Joseph Campbell,

I received a text from my pastor at 2:45 AM on Sunday morning. He said he was sick and was almost assured that he would not be able to do his Sunday school or preach in the am service. He asked me if I could find someone to do my Sunday school so I could cover for him.

Things did work out, and I was able to do both his Sunday school and preach the a.m. service. Michael Seldomridge quickly agreed to do my Sunday school which I appreciated very much.

Michael Pruitte preached the pm service for Pastor Carringer.

Immediately following the evening service, we had a “Strawberry Shortcake” fellowship. If you remember, we had scheduled Doctor David Gibbs to preach for us on Sunday. He had medical issues concerning his ankle that would not allow him to travel.

I got the big head thinking I’m filling the pulpit for Dr. David Gibbs. Until someone told me ... No Gary ... Dr. Gibbs didn’t preach because of medical issues ... Pastor Carringer couldn’t preach because he was sick ... They were scraping the bottom of the barrel when they ask you to preach 🤔. This sure took the wind out of my sails... , but I was just happy that I was able to preach. 😂😂😂

Most of the week was a pretty normal week. We had a great Wednesday night prayer meeting. I kept busy getting the maps ready for "Saturation Saturday." Which went very well today.

We did have a death in the church family, and I was able to go with Pastor Carringer to comfort our dear brother who lost his wife.

Let us continue to pray 🙏 one for another.

P.S. I did slip in a couple of my grandpa's pictures this week. Some things you just cannot restrain yourself from. All involved are healthy and happy.

Saturday Eve Barna-Post

“Thoughts To Ponder” “What’s On Your Schedule For Sunday”

Psalms 122:1 (A Song of degrees of David.) I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.

I’m sorry that my schedule this week did not allow me to do a proper challenge. 🤔 . But in all reality, I couldn’t give you a better challenge than to say.... We have the privilege to go to church each Sunday ... What do we do with that privilege?

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT 🤔

Your Barnabas,
Brother Gary L. Norris
