For full details about the strategic planning process, including information on engagement opportunities, registration links, information on how to access the survey and ongoing updates, please visit thereforewehavehope.com

If you have questions or need support accessing any of the engagement options, you are welcome to reach out by email at thereforewehavehope@gmail.com . Our aim is to ensure everyone who wishes to participate is able to do so. The strength of this process depends on broad participation - the more voices we hear, the richer and more faithful our shared direction will be. Every voice matters.
