Opening Prayer Liturgist

Choral Call Great and Mighty

*Call to Worship Based on Psalm 23 Liturgist

L: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

P: He makes us lie down in green pastures and leads us beside still waters.

L: He restores our souls and leads us in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

P: Even though we walk through the valley of the shadow of death, we will fear no evil, for You are with us.

L: Your rod and Your staff, they comfort us.

P: You prepare a table before us in the presence of our enemies; You anoint our heads with oil, our cup overflows.

L: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow us all the days of our life.

P: And we will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Sermon Scripture

John 9:1-7; 36b-41 (ESV)

As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. 2 And his disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” 3 Jesus answered, “It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him. 4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” 6 Having said these things, he spit on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud 7 and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing.

“Do you believe in the Son of Man?” 36 He answered, “And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?” 37 Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, and it is he who is speaking to you.” 38 He said, “Lord, I believe,” and he worshiped him. 39 Jesus said, “For judgment I came into this world, that those who do not see may see, and those who see may become blind.” 40 Some of the Pharisees near him heard these things, and said to him, “Are we also blind?” 41 Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no guilt; but now that you say, ‘We see,’ your guilt remains.

Sermon Do You See? Rev. Brenda Houlihan

Prayer of the Christian Community | Lord's Prayer

Gracious and merciful God, You are the Light of the world, and we thank You that in Christ You open our eyes to see Your truth and Your grace. When we encounter suffering and struggle to understand what we see, remind us that Your purposes are greater than our understanding and that You are always at work to redeem and restore. Give us hearts that trust You, lives that reflect the love of Christ, and faith to walk in Your light even when the path is unclear. Strengthen those who suffer, comfort those who mourn, and guide us to be people who carry Your hope into the world. Trusting in Your mercy and seeking Your kingdom, we pray together the prayer our Lord taught us, saying: Our Father, who art in heaven...
