March Newsletter

Dr. Seuss Week (often called Read Across America Week) is an annual literacy celebration designed to promote a love of reading—especially among young children—by highlighting the books and legacy of Dr. Seuss (Theodor Seuss Geisel). This year we will celebrate Dr. Seuss week by sharing his books and participating in the following activities:

- Cat in the Hat Day – (book)- “The Cat in the Hat” ~ wear hats or red/white colors
- Green Eggs and Ham Day (book)– “Green Eggs and Ham” -Wear something green
- Wacky Wednesday – (book)- ”Wacky Wednesday” - wear silly socks, mismatched clothes
- Favorite Book Character Day – dress as your favorite Dr. Seuss character
- The Lorax – (book) “The Lorax” ~Wear orange or yellow shirt
