

WOMEN'S RETREAT

APRIL 17 & 18, 2026

AT TEL HAI CAMP & RETREAT

(31 LASSO DRIVE, HONEY BROOK)

"STEP FORWARD ANYWAY"

RISK, TRUST, AND THE GOD WHO DELIVERS

WITH RENATA CONSTABLE

The story of Rahab is one of unexpected courage and redemption: We will learn from her story how God meets people in their uncertainty and invites them to step forward anyway. Our speaker is passionate about helping women see themselves in ancient biblical texts, and will help us see how these stories speak directly into modern struggles with fear, identity, and calling.

VARIOUS PARTICIPATION OPTIONS ARE AVAILABLE

OUR SPEAKER

Renata Constable is a coach, speaker, and former church planter who helps women step into courage when the path forward isn't clear.

Born in Poland, Renata and her husband Tim planted City Church Warsaw, where she served in leadership for years. But her foundation isn't seminary, it's the real world. She spent years in advertising and public relations, learning how to read people, challenge the stories that hold them back, and communicate truth with both clarity and compassion. She's also a certified professional coach (ICF-ACC), blending biblical depth with practical tools for transformation.

Renata lives in Toronto with her husband of 22 years and their three children: Kaleb (21), Maja (18), and Lucy (16). Renata draws her strength from daily time with God, and she's committed to helping other women do the same.
