CHRIST CHURCH
CATHEDRAL
A CATHEDRAL FOR THE CITY

ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF ISLANDS AND INLETS
RENEWED HEARTS, RENEWED SPIRITS, RENEWED PEOPLE

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Anglican Diocese of British Columbia. Here we respectfully acknowledge that we gather to worship on the ancestral lands of the Esquimalt and Songhees Nations, with whom we are in relationship to seek reconciliation.

As an Anglican centre for spirituality, learning, culture, heritage and community, this cathedral upholds a daily rhythm of worship in the heart of Victoria. From daily spoken and sung services to the weekly celebration of the Eucharist and Choral Evensong, we mark the important events of the Christian calendar and in the life of our diocese and the wider community

Christ Church Cathedral is a fully inclusive community where all are invited to hear God's Word and partake of God's bread, regardless of upbringing or creed. Please join as fully as you wish in every action of our worship, including communion. This is God's house and all are welcome.

The Season of Lent and the Posture of Prayer

Lent, a 40-day season of preparation for the Easter feast, is historically a time when adults are formed for baptism at the Great Vigil of Easter, and when those separated by sins are restored to the community. While traditional disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving are the focus of the season, Sundays are in, rather than of, Lent. Sundays offer a hint — more accurately, a foretaste — of Easter with gospel accounts of healing, and the sweetness of our sharing in the Eucharistic meal.

Throughout the Lenten season, we pay renewed attention to the body as a pathway to deeper relationship with God and participation in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. It is customary to kneel or stand at times of confession, the prayers of the people, and at the solemn prayer over the people. Traditionally, the church sits at the first and second readings, and during the homily or sermon. As your strength and health permits, you are encouraged enter into the customs of the season, with a sense of gentle reverence rather than austere demand.

If you would like to sign up for our E-news, or would like more information about the Cathedral, please visit our website www.christchurchcathedral.bc.ca.

Presider: The Reverend Canon Doug Friesen

Today's service ("the liturgy") is the work of the whole People of God, and all are encouraged to speak the responses in bold and sing the hymns, found in the blue Common Praise hymnal. If you are unable to locate a copy, please ask the sidespeople for assistance.

be with you all.

Seasonal Greeting

Presider Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People God's mercy endures for ever.

Invitation to Confession

Presider Dear Friends in Christ, as we prepare for the Paschal Feast, continuing in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers, let us make ready our hearts to renew the covenant of our baptism, and kneel before our Creator and Redeemer.

All kneel or remain standing. Silence is shared.

Confession

Presider Holy and immortal God,
People you formed us from the dust in your image, and redeemed us from sin and death by the cross of our Saviour. Through the washing of baptism you raised us up with him to share in the new covenant with all your holy people. But we have squandered the inheritance of your saints, and have wandered far in a land that is waste. Therefore we turn to you in penitence and humility. In your great mercy, forgive us and restore us, that we may rejoice in your presence, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

Absolution

The Presider pronounces God's forgiveness:

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

People Amen.

Ezekiel 37.1-14 / the people sit

Psalm 130

(Common Praise #542) / remain seated

Out of the depths I turn to you on high;
Lord, hear my call.
Bend down your ear and listen to my cry,
forgiving all.
If you should mark our sins who then could stand?
But grace and mercy dwell at your right hand.

I wait for you, I trust your holy word;
you hear my sighs.
My soul still waits and looks unto you, Lord;
my prayers arise.
I look for you to drive away my night—
yes, more than those who watch for morning light.

Hope in the Lord: un failing is God's love;
trust and confide.
Mercy and full redemption from above
does grace provide.
From sin and evil, mighty though they seem,
God's saving arm will all the saints redeem.

Text: Ps. 130; para. The Psalter, 1912, alt.

Presider We praise and bless you, loving Father, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you. He broke the bread, gave it to them and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me." When supper was ended he took the cup of wine. Again he praised you, gave it to them and said: "Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did, in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross. Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Presider Christ is the bread of life.
All When we eat this bread and drink this cup,
 we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus,
 until you come in glory.

Presider Lord of all life, help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth. Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with [...and] all the saints to feast at your table in heaven. Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father, for ever and ever.

People Amen.
