Call to Worship Dean Sutton

Friends, some of us come to worship today, weary and worn, heavy with all the circumstances that are too much to bear alone.

We gather to travel God’s redemption road together.

Some of us come to worship today, dry and thirsty, longing for relief and peace from the troubles that surround us.

We gather to travel God’s redemption road together.

Beloved, whatever we bring with us to worship today, God welcomes us and calls us to work together as we travel God’s redemption road together.

We gather to be truth-tellers and life-bringers as we travel God’s redemption road together. Praise God!

Opening Prayer Rev. Magloire K. Kaneng

Faithful God, we come to you this morning to lift our voices together in praise and worship, yet among us, some feel dry, overwhelmed, and weary along this journey of Hope, seeking your breath of life. Lead us to the right streams of divine mercy, where our thirst will be satisfied, hope revived, and call us out from the tombs of despair. Call forth our faith that we may know the power of the resurrected Christ, and your free redemption given through you in this world and the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of Confession

Dean Sutton

Out of the depths of despair, we cry to you, O God. We are lost in a world of pain and suffering. When we put our trust in weapons of war, we find no peace. When we put our faith in our own resources, we feel the ache of our true needs. When we put our hope in the health of our bodies, we suffer pain and find no healing. Come to us, O God. Forgive our doubts and fears. Heal our brokenness, that we may rejoice in your steadfast love. Amen.

Silent Prayer

Words of Assurance

Dean Sutton

Friends, hear now the good news: There is forgiveness and healing in God's presence!

And God's steadfast love has the power to redeem our brokenness and make us whole again! Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Rev. Magloire K. Kaneng

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
