Growing in God this week

Read: Heb 10:11-14, 19-25

Pray: Lord, where am I still trying to make things right instead of living in the freedom that Christ has already secured for me?

Walk it out: Confess the sin. Surrender, specifically, "that thing" to the Lord. Draw near instead of keeping a distance.

Share: Tell someone what God showed you to surrender and ask them to pray for you.

Maundy-Thursday— April 2 at 6 pm Agape meal and devotion. we will gather around the table just like Jesus did with His disciples. We'll share a simple meal together and remember the bread and the cup. We'll also learn how the disciples would have heard wedding language in Jesus' words—language that spoke of promise, commitment, and love in Jewish culture. Please bring your own table service and remember do not bring traditional potluck dishes, desserts or casseroles. Some ideas: Nuts, figs, raisins, butter crackers, smoked fish, eggs, fresh fruit, fresh vegetables, olives, bread (any kind or style), cheese

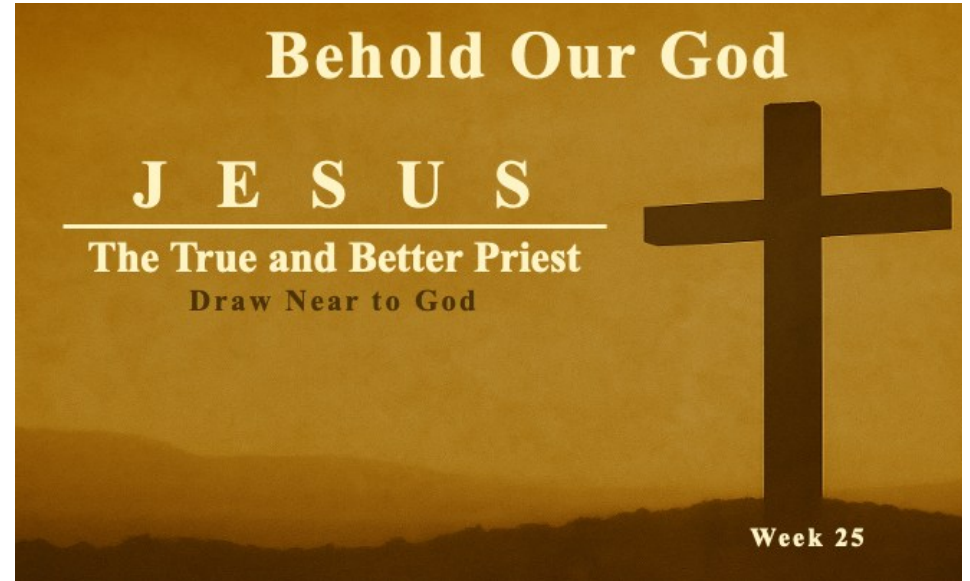

Good Friday Service—April 3rd at 6pm Join us for a memorable Good Friday service as we step into the story of the cross. We will hear the Passion narrative read live - from the Garden to the cross - and meditate on Jesus' sacrifice. Come slow down, take it in, and reflect on what His sacrifice means for you.

Easter Service! April 5th 10:30am
