Many, many thanks for the prayers, love, donations, and time that were shared with our neighbors yesterday for the Egg Drop. We expected some 700 people this year - who will spread the word for next year. We were, and are, blessed!

Start your Easter with the sunrise service at Greenville Memorial Gardens, 7784 Augusta Rd. The service starts at 7am. Pastor Sean will be preaching and Audra will be singing. Afterward stop for a community breakfast at Augusta Rd UMC, 8324 Augusta Rd...and come early for our service so you can place flowers on the cross outside the Welcome Center.

Crafters, are you interested in forming a group to make items for places like nursing homes? Simpsonville First Baptist hopes to expand their program and teach knitting, quilting, etc. If you're interested in having a group here, call Janis Phillips, 864-561-0317.

Young at Heart meets on Tuesday, April 7. Please RSVP to Bruce and Anna Holcombe. Ham will be served, please bring a side dish or dessert.

Ladies, the Bloom Bible Study led by Audra Rheaume meets tonight in the Welcome Center at 5pm. The group will not meet next week, Easter Sunday, and the last study will be April 19.

This is the last week of the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Donation envelopes and Prayer Guides have been placed in some pew pockets or ask an usher.

Save the date: the Good Friday service will be this week on April 3 at 6 pm.
