As You Prepare for Worship

The Scriptures proclaimed this evening call us to enter the celebration of these three days (the Paschal Triduum) not as spectators, but as those whose life is found in Christ, called to participate in his mission to the world. The story of Jesus washing feet with our celebration of the Eucharist express for us the meaning of the Cross and, therefore, of our life in union with the Lord. Our mandate: to love and serve others as he has done for us.

On this night the Church gathers to mark the gift of the Eucharist in the light of our own betrayal of Christ to those who would put him to death. We too eat the meal with him this night and join him in vigil and prayer. We mark also Christ's lonely vigil while the disciples sleep. Pray and keep watch this night as Jesus is betrayed into the hands of those who would kill him for our sake. Please note that tonight's Liturgy ends in silence with no dismissal. Our celebration is not over, but continues tomorrow with the Celebration of the Lord's Passion.

Communion

All Christians of any age are welcome to receive communion. Gluten-free wafers are available. You are invited to drink from the common cup. If you are uncomfortable drinking from the cup, you may pass by the chalice bearer or stop and touch the cup or bow your head briefly. Intinction (dipping the wafer in the wine) is not permitted. If you are not receiving communion but wish to receive a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest and the priest will bless you.

Communion Motet:

I Give You A New Commandment – Peter Aston

Prayer after Communion p. 247

Post Communion Devotions

During the stripping of the altar, the choir and congregation may sing Jesus Remember Me #634.

Following the reading of Matthew 26:30-46, members of the congregation may remain in silent prayer and then leave in silence.
