Where the number of units in the Parish:

- a) is not in excess of 300 - 2 Lay Members elected;

- e) and where the number is in excess of 1200 - 6 Lay Members elected.

For the purposes of this Section:

- a) two or more persons of any age in the same household shall constitute a family, and a family shall equal two units;
 - b) a person, who is not a member of a family, and is of the age of 16 years or over shall equal one unit; and
 - c) "person" means one who attends and supports the Church in the Parish or who looks to the clergy of the Parish for spiritual ministrations.
2. All persons elected Lay Members of Synod by the Vestry of a Parish shall be members of the congregation or congregations in that Parish and at least one of such persons shall be a Churchwarden. In electing other Lay Members, Parishes shall have regard to representation of both sexes and of young persons in the Church, provided always that such persons are available and otherwise qualified to serve.
 3. The election of Lay Members of Synod shall be conducted in such manner as the Chairperson of the Meeting may deem proper.
 4. When a Parish has more than one congregation and the number of Laity Members to which the Parish is entitled cannot be allotted to each congregation without exceeding the limit for the Parish, then the Lay Representatives shall be divided among the congregations as evenly as may be in proportion to the number of units in each congregation, or as may be otherwise agreed upon by the Incumbent and all the Churchwardens of the Parish.
 5. Lay Members of Synod shall be elected for a period of two years. In the case of a first election, one Lay Member shall be elected for two years and one for one year.
