In the Diocese —

- You Are the Salt of the Earth — A Diocesan Summer Retreat

All Saints' by-the-Sea | SAVE THE DATE | August 4 to 6th

All are invited to join Bishop Anna and The Rev. Christine Conkin for a summer retreat at our own church here on beautiful Salt Spring.

We will spend time reflecting together on our call to be the salt of the earth amidst the very real challenges of these turbulent 2020s.

We'll talk about power and empires and how the church needs to organise and mobilize in order to incarnate God's love and justice. .

In the Community—

- Well Being ~ Fair

Mahon Hall | Weds, April 4th | 10:00—4 pm | by Donation

4th Annual Well-Being Fair at Mahon Hall on Salt Spring Island.

Over 20 Wellness Practitioners and Vendors will be there to nourish your whole being. There will be something there for the whole family!

- An Evening with Master Story Teller Jan Blake

Beaver Point Hall | Sunday, April 5th | 7:00—9 pm

You're invited to a magical evening of myth.

Come join us as Jan Blake shares myths & tales that reconnect her with her African heritage and Jamaican roots, transforming ancestral bone-memory into a source of healing and joyful self expression.

This incredible evening is part of her Re-Rooting Tour: an exploration of African folktales in the diaspora through storytelling, music, rhythm, and song. Percussion and soundscape by Reg Wilford.

ABOUT THE STORY

Old Woman: themed around the power of Old Women, the women who have seen it all, who have given birth & nurtured, who outgrown fear and have acquired the ethereal wisdom that keeps the world together. Travelling on the rhythm of the word and the drum through Africa and Jamaica, we see three very different old women materialize before us.
