

In the power of the resurrection, let us pray to the Lord, saying: Hear us Lord of Glory

For the whole bright earth, so lovingly created yet so compassionately redeemed, that it may speak again of the glory and majesty of God, let us pray to the Lord.

Hear us Lord of Glory

For all nations and peoples of the earth, to whom God shows no partiality, that all may be transformed by mercy to live together in hope, let us pray to the Lord.

Hear us Lord of Glory

For Todd our bishop and for the holy church, whose life is hid with Christ in God, that in all its diversity witness may be made to one Lord, one faith, one baptism, let us pray to the Lord. Hear us Lord of Glory

For all in high places of authority, for whom Christ was put to death and was raised, that they may be led to govern with equity and justice, bringing life to those in the shadow of death, let us pray to the Lord. Hear us Lord of Glory

For all who have been baptized and given garments of light and for those about to be confirmed, that they, with the whole church, may be witnesses to the gospel in daily life, let us pray to the Lord. Hear us Lord of Glory

For all captives, prisoners, and those condemned to die, with whom the Holy One shares suffering and abandonment, that they find strength, freedom and forgiveness, let us pray to the Lord. Hear us Lord of Glory

For all who are on our hearts, especially Rob, Beulah, Andrea, Heather, Mary Louise, Hadley, Harold, Ebba, Bethany for those who suffer in mind, body or soul, for whom Christ is risen with healing in his glorious wings, that they may be comforted, let us pray to the Lord. Hear us Lord of Glory

For all who have died and for all who grieve, that in Christ who triumphs over death they may find light perpetual and blessed assurance, let us pray to the Lord. Hear us Lord of Glory

For all gathered in this assembly, that we, like Mary and Peter and John, may see the tomb empty, and joyfully believing, walk in newness of life, let us pray to the Lord. Hear us Lord of Glory

Rejoicing in the risen presence of our Lord, we commend all for whom we pray and ourselves to Christ to whom we give laud and praise now and forever. Amen.
