

Trails Of Beauty

*Slipping my hand in yours even as decades passed
Your strength and love were evident
Wisdom and kindheartedness were welcoming
With a fun-loving spirit that prompted smiles
Conversations and dinner speeches warmed hearts
Bringing laughter that would echo through the walls*

*Trails of beautiful memories continue
A closeness, beyond a touch
Your artistic flair was evident
In landscaped gardens and on canvas
Your sanctuary was in nature's caress
As the whispering breeze quivers the leaves
The gift of your gentleness lives on*

*The Lord was your Shepherd
So the still waters flowed
Through any valley you endured
Strength was found in Him, alone*

*Attentive to the smallest of details
From a spring flower blooming
To sparrows nestled in their home
You gave us a new appreciation
For the insignificant things in nature
The peace you shared in Jesus
Has found you beside the still waters
You exemplified a joy-filled life*

*Celebrating your life today
We take comfort in the Truth of Psalm 23
Where you are walking the eternal green pastures
In God's glorified presence*
