Questions to ask and thoughts for ourselves

Does My life most resemble darkness or light?

I am largely a result of the people I have chosen to surround myself with.

Take an assessment of those within your inner circle. Name the ways in which they encourage you to live in the light of truth.

If you cannot name any, it might be time to find some new friendships.

Review and discuss message points.

Marks of Godly Friends/ Why are each mark important?

They believe that it is important to repent of sin (Matthew 4:17).

They believe it is important to serve people as they serve Christ (Philippians 2).

They believe it is important to be reconciled with one another (Matthew 5:23-25).

They believe it is important to keep their word (Matthew 5:37).

They believe it is important to pray for one another (Matthew 21:13).
