

Come See For Yourself

Matthew 28:1

Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to the tomb to finish anointing Jesus' body, but he was not there. Jesus was not supposed to be there because he had risen. The tomb represented death, but Jesus represents life. He rose up out of a dark situation because he is the light.

You may be bound by chains, but Jesus can break the chains and release you. There is no temptation that has seized you except that which is common to man, and God is faithful, he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear, but he'll provide a way out.

Jesus was trapped in a sealed tomb, but he made his way out. Our hopes and dreams were trapped in that tomb, but even death could not hold Jesus down. Jesus' journey to the cross was punctuated by various stops, and then the tomb, a borrowed one at that, but he is not there

When Jesus brings you out of a situation, proceed to Go. Go tell your testimony. Tell of the goodness of Jesus and what he has done for you. Tell how he rescued you from the depths of hell and brought you into the marvelous light.

Jesus had victory over death, hell, and the grave, and he has victory over your circumstances. If he can overcome the cross, the tomb, you too can be an overcomer. Be of good cheer because he has overcome the world and he is not bound by space, time or anyone.

When you are troubled, seek the Lord in prayer. He will work on your behalf and you will be victorious.
