December 2025 Update:

In just a few days, our oldest son, Caleb, will be a teenager! When we first moved to Pittsburgh, he was only one year old. And now...let's just say he's grown quite a bit. Caleb has also just finished our church's Membership Information Class and desires to be baptized and join the church. In addition, this past month, our church voted to add three additional elders to our current team of four elders, bringing our total to seven. It's a tremendous blessing to have such a strong team of humble and very well-qualified men. Please pray for all seven of us (Josh, Jeremy, Kyle, Bill, Shane, Will, and Joe) to be filled with the Spirit as we engage in this ministry.

We'd also appreciate your prayer for a young man. He's been attending our church consistently for a couple of months and scheduled an appointment with me yesterday afternoon. The conversation started with his questions about how to go about finding a godly woman to marry, but it quickly turned into a conversation about his own spiritual condition. Suffice it to say that we spent well over an hour talking about the gospel and what genuine saving faith looks like... Please pray also for us to have wisdom as we follow up with him.

Yet, in the midst of these outreach opportunities, we want to make sure our own hearts are captivated by Jesus. Please pray that our church would have our gaze fixed on Christ this Christmas season and grow to be more in awe of his glory and grace.
