Notice

The One Hundred and Fortieth Session (Special) of the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton will convene on Saturday, April 18, 2026, at 8:50 a.m. at Christ Church Cathedral, 150 Church St., Fredericton.

Membership

The Credentials Committee advises that it is important for those who intend to exercise membership of the Synod confirm that their name appears on one of the licensed clergy, licensed evangelists or elected lay delegates and substitutes lists. PLEASE REFER TO SECTION B. Those who feel the lists are in error need to take steps, prior to registration on the day of Synod, to clarify their status. Clergy not listed should contact the Bishop's Secretary in advance of the session. Lay delegates, or lay substitutes replacing a delegate, not listed should assure the completion of the form of Certification of a Synod Delegate prior to attempting to register.

Registration

Registration opens at 8:00 a.m. Please register upon arrival at the synod session on April 18 as a quorum will be required to convene the Session.

Convening Circular

Delegates should become as familiar as possible with the contents of this convening circular prior to the synod session and, if possible, bring a device to access it electronically at the session. Printed copies of the parts required for the day will be made available at the synod session. If lay delegates are unable to attend the session of synod, the substitute from the same parish attending in their place is to be made aware of this circular. It will be helpful if those who can download the digital version of the circular to a device do so prior to arriving at the venue.

Reports

As this is a special single-topic synod there will be no Diocesan Council, officer or committee reports collected or presented. Clergy are not required to provide a report to the bishop.

Communicable Disease Prevention

Delegates are expected to assess and manage their personal risk and respect the risk assessment of other delegates. Wash or disinfect your hands often, and cover coughs and sneezes. Most importantly, stay at home if you are sick.

Other Information

Please visit the Synod session webpage for additional up to date information or to contact members of the Synod Sessional Committees. The Secretary of Synod is available to answer your questions or direct you to someone who can.

Prayers for Synod

For this Synod

Almighty God, giver of all and ruler of all that is seen and unseen; we ask for continual divine grace to your Church and especially to the 140th Session of Diocesan Synod. May we walk in your way, leading lives worthy of our calling, in humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another in love and maintaining the unity of your Spirit in the bond of peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Being Communities for our Communities

O Lord our creator, by your holy prophet you taught your ancient people to seek the welfare of the cities in which they lived. We commend our communities and neighbourhoods to your care, that they might be kept free from social strife and decay. Give us strength of purpose and concern for others, that we may create in our province a community of justice and peace where your will may be done; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

For the mission of the Church

Draw your Church together, O Lord, into one great company of disciples, together following our Lord Jesus Christ into every walk of life, together serving him in his mission to the world, and together witnessing to his love on every continent and island. May your Holy Spirit encourage and enable us in this diocese to bless those in our congregations and neighbourhoods, to make opportunities to eat with others, to take time to listen to you and learn from your Word and the writings of gifted authors, and to know ourselves to be sent by you into our community and the world. We ask this in his name and for his sake.

For the ministry of the Church

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts, in your divine providence you have appointed various orders in your Church. Give your grace, we humbly pray, to all who are called to any office and ministry for your people; and so fill them with the truth of your doctrine and clothe them with holiness of life, that they may faithfully serve before you, to the glory of your great name and for the benefit of your holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

For Peace

O God, it is your will to hold both heaven and earth in a single peace. Let the design of your great love shine on the waste of our wraths and sorrows, and give peace to your Church, peace among nations, peace in our homes, and peace in our hearts; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

8(1) No motion or amendment is before the Synod unless it is seconded and in writing.

8(2) No original motion, except a procedural motion, shall be received without notice unless permitted by the Synod.

8(3) No motion that would result in a new expenditure may be considered unless it identifies a proposed source of funding or is qualified as being subject to available funding.

8(7) Motions to adjourn, to adjourn the debate, or to lay a motion on the table shall be decided without debate.

8(8.1) The motion referred to in subsection (8) is valid without approval of the Bishop or other Chair.

8(9) Debate on a motion to refer shall be restricted to the questions whether to refer and to whom.

8(10) When amendments to a motion are proposed, the amendments and the original motion shall be put in the reverse order to that in which they were made.

8(11) When the Chair declares that a question is being put, no further debate shall be allowed and no member shall rise.

Voting

9(1) When the votes of the clergy and of the lay members are required to be taken separately under subsection 8(2) of the Constitution or upon any motion to amend the Constitution or to adopt, amend, suspend or repeal a Canon, the question shall be put first to the order of the mover.

9(2) In voting, those who vote in the affirmative shall so signify first, and then those who vote in the negative.

9(2.1) Notwithstanding subsection (2), at the direction of the Chair or at the request of twenty members, voting on specified business shall be by ballot.

9(3) If there is an equality of votes, either of the Synod voting collectively or in the votes of either the clergy or the lay members taken separately, the Chair shall declare the question to have been decided in the negative.

9(4) A question, once determined, shall not again be drawn into discussion at the same meeting of the Synod without the permission of the Chair.

Suspension of the Rules of Order

10(1) A motion to suspend a Rule of Order and Procedure shall take precedence over all other motions, shall be decided without debate, and to be carried requires the affirmative votes of two-thirds of the members present.

10(2) The motion referred to in subsection (1) is valid without approval of the Bishop or other Chair.

Unprovided Cases

11 When a question of order is not covered by these Rules, the Chair may refer to Kerr and King's Procedures for Meetings and Organizations for guidance.

Getting a Motion Before the 140th Diocesan Synod

This 140th Diocesan Synod is a “Special” Synod devoted to the sole question of considering the future of what since 1853 has been the Diocesan Cathedral. Substantive motions brought before the meeting should relate to that subject. (Motions on other topics can come before the next Regular synod, which will take place in November.)

Making a Motion: Substantive motions are initiated by giving a Notice of Motion by way of the Drafting a Resolution form. Notices of Motion can be given either before or for a limited time during a Synod.

Before Synod: [Canon Two, sections 7(1)(b) and 7(2)] Notices of Motion for regular meetings of Synod can be sent to the Resolutions Committee (resolutions@anglican.nb.ca).

At Synod: [Canon Two, sections 3(10), 7(1)(a) and 7(3)] Notices of Motion can be given at a meeting of Synod by delivering the same to the Resolutions Committee before the deadline set by the Agenda Committee.

Procedural Motions: [Canon Two, section 8(5)] Procedural motions (such as a motion to table, refer or adjourn) may be made without notice and must be disposed of before consideration of the substantive motion before Synod.

Resolutions Committee: Canon Two, section 3(1), [Regulation 2-1 Resolutions Committee Mandate] The Resolutions Committee does not have authority to veto or refuse a motion, but will seek to ensure that the language reflects the mover’s intent and is in clear and coherent language, and the Committee may recommend clarifications and point out potential concerns. It may also suggest consolidation of a proposed motion with other motions received on the same subject.

New Expenditures: [Canon Two, section 8(3)] Motions proposing new expenditures must either identify a proposed source of funding or be qualified as being made “subject to available funding.”

Notice of Motion

Motion 2026-140-01 – Safeguarding the Fabric of Christ Church Cathedral

MOVED THAT this Synod advise the Bishop that, after such further consultation as he considers useful with the Cathedral Bishop and Chapter, Diocesan Council and Synod Finance Committee, and any other stakeholders, and with the agreement and cooperation of any of those bodies as necessary, the Bishop (current or successor), take such steps as s/he considers proper for safeguarding the fabric of Christ Church Cathedral for the present and future, including such possible measures as transfer of the Cathedral (deconsecrated, if necessary) and surrounding property to a secular foundation, sale of Cathedral Memorial Hall, development of the vacant lot on Church Street, and/or reconfiguration of the Cathedral nave.

Funding provision: Carrying out this motion would be subject to available funding. Expert assessment of the financial resources required to address needed repairs to Christ Church Cathedral and provide an endowment fund so that future repair crises could be averted put that sum in excess of $23,000,000. This motion, in advising the Bishop to take steps to make the building safe for the present and preserved for the future anticipates, on any eventuality, a funding campaign for contributions from New Brunswick Anglicans (Bishop and Chapter [that is, the Cathedral's governing corporation], parishes, the Synod itself, and individuals), as well as some appeal to the wider community/public. The motion also foresees that the Bishop, with relevant legal assents and participation from Bishop and Chapter, Diocesan Council and Synod Finance Committee, might undertake alternate or additional steps that have financial implications, such as selling the Cathedral Memorial Hall, replacing it jointly (by the Cathedral and the Synod) with a small office building on vacant Church Street land, and reconfiguring the Cathedral's nave so as to make it a more versatile space for outreach of various kinds.

Background: A summary of the outcomes of the Greater Chapter meetings held in March by Archbishop David follows as an appendix.

Summary of Outcomes from Greater Chapter Meetings Held in March 2026 in Preparation for This Special Synod Session

The results of meetings of the Greater Chapters suggest that most people in attendance, in many cases reluctantly, agreed with the basic idea of forming a foundation to take ownership and maintenance responsibility for the Cathedral and its surrounding greenspace. This would be accompanied by an occupancy agreement with the foundation to permit the bishop and the congregation continued use of the properties. Such a foundation would be a vehicle for securing funding from private and public sources for the repair and long-term maintenance of the building, while allowing its Anglican character to continue in great measure as at present. If the foundation were to fail in its mission, it would presumably offer to return the property to church ownership.

In terms of identified alternatives to a foundation, there appeared to be little Greater Chapter support for the status quo. There was some support, but not much, for demolishing, selling or giving the building away. The thought was that upkeep is too costly and parishes are struggling to retain their own buildings. Added to this suggestion is the idea that the bishop's cathedra might be moved to another building.

The rationale for foundation ownership is that the wider community, government and secular charities may be inclined to support an historic, beautiful and distinctive building in its gracious setting but unwilling to do so if it involved subsidizing a particular religious organization. The attractiveness of the foundation idea is that it might bring the advantages of secular ownership of the property while allowing the Christian purpose of the building to continue to be fulfilled.

The most widely-stated concern and hesitation over conveying the Cathedral building and property to a foundation is loss of control over the building, including control over the types of non-religious activities that might take place there. Would they be compatible with a centre for Christian worship? Can the terms of the property conveyance to a foundation address this concern adequately? Allied closely to this concern is deconsecration. One of Canada's leading Anglican canon lawyers, Dr. Alan Perry, has expressed the view that secular ownership of property and the continuing consecrated status of that property are not themselves incompatible. Yet it seems likely that to attract public and philanthropic funding, the building would have to be deconsecrated.

During the course of some Greater Chapter discussions, a sort of hybrid idea found a degree of favour. It involved turning to the Anglican community – the Synod, parishes and individuals – to see if sufficient funds to replace the Cathedral roof and to ensure the safety of the clerestory windows could be raised. Other work would be done over time. The disadvantage of this approach is that it would be merely stopgap at best and not lead to the permanent endowment for fabric repair that the Cathedral needs. However, it would have the advantage of preserving ownership and control with the church.

In light of this hybrid idea, I might add personally that we could also consider a combination of:

- Investigating the possibility of a one or two-story joint Cathedral and Synod office building on the remaining lot across the street from the Cathedral, between the former Bishop's Court and former synod office building.
- Redesigning the Cathedral's Nave as a multiple-use space, with kitchen facilities perhaps in the space opposite the existing washrooms or in the current sacristy.
- Investigating the sale of Cathedral Memorial Hall.

Respectfully submitted,

The Most Rev'd David Edwards
Bishop of Fredericton
