II. PERSONAL STATEMENTS:

Please respond to these three questions in a separate document:

How do you envision contributing to the ADC Board? (125 words or less)

What is your vision for the future of ADC? (125 words or less)

Please let us know more about yourself: what ministries you are involved in, which ones do you enjoy most, and perhaps something about your hopes and dreams for your ministry as a servant leader in the Anglican Church of Canada. (250 words or less)

Please note: Part 1 of this form (minus your personal contact information) and your Part 2 responses to the three questions above will be distributed to the Nominations Committee and may be published on ADC’s website and/or sent electronically to all ADC members prior to the Annual General Meeting which will be held on Thursday, June 11, 2026 at 7:00pm EDT via Zoom.

The Nominations Committee is charged with assembling a strong slate of candidates for election which includes deacons from all four ecclesiastical provinces, candidates who bring currently needed skills and experience to the board, and whenever possible candidates whose diversity of perspectives and gifts will enrich and strengthen the board’s visioning and decision making processes.

If elected, I agree to be a working member of the Board of Directors, as defined in the “ADC Board Responsibilities and Covenants” document which will be distributed to you as a separate document.
