Around Gloster Street

A SUCCESSFUL MISSION TRIP

We appreciate the report given by Cason Pearce this past Sunday evening on the recent mission trip that occurred in Kurukubaro, Guyana. We are thankful for the safety Cason, T.K. Hollingsworth, and Greg Jones enjoyed, and we are excited about what they were able to accomplish during this effort. Please pray for the seeds planted in during this campaign to continue to grow and yield much fruit.

Speaking of mission trips, please keep Jeremy & Jessica Archer in your prayers. The Archers are currently in Guatemala working with a medical mission team.

CHURCH LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

Don't forget about our upcoming Church Leadership Workshop on May 1-2. This workshop is designed to equip local congregations and church members to better serve God. The theme is Providing Stability in an Unstable World. Although elders and deacons will benefit greatly from the lessons presented, everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend. This workshop is a collaboration with Freed-Hardeman University, which has previously conducted workshops like this near its campus. We are looking forward to having several visitors join us for this weekend.

IN SYMPATHY

We extend our sympathy to the family of James Horton, who passed away on Saturday, April 11. Brother James was the minister at Gloster Street from 1971-1974. After leaving Tupelo, he preached for many years in Texas. In the last few years, he and his wife, Rose, have been living and worshiping in Ripley, Mississippi.

May God Bless You All!

Chad Ramsey
