

Passion in the Psalms
Part 3—Anticipating the Resurrection: Psalm 16:8-11

Jesus was _____ the resurrection.
Christ knew the cross and the resurrection would _____ everything!

Jesus' Perspective on the Cross & Resurrection

1. You can look _____ your suffering – vs. 8-9

A. Suffering becomes _____

"I have set the LORD always before me; Because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved." - Psalm 16:8

- Making your relationship with God the most important thing in your life, steadies you through uncertain, difficult seasons.

B. Suffering becomes _____ and _____

"Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices; My flesh also will rest in hope." - Psalm 16:9

You find joy when you believe that pain is not the end.
God has something greater _____ for you.

2. Fear changes to _____ - you can expect God to _____! – v. 10

"For You will not leave my soul in Sheol, Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption." - Psalm 16:10

- This verse is repeated in Acts 2:27 by Peter & Acts 13:35 by Paul to make the case that David, who was dead, could not have been referring to himself. David was prophesying about Jesus rising from the dead.

3. God is _____!

*"You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore."
- Psalm 16:11*

A. He gives you Life!

B. He gives you Joy!

C. He gives you Eternity!
