

A Note from the Pastor

Hello BBC!

One of the greatest gifts of being part of a church family is the opportunity to grow in relationship—not only with Jesus, but with one another. Each week, new faces join us and familiar ones return, all carrying unique stories, experiences, and gifts. Taking a moment to introduce yourself, share a conversation, or simply offer a warm smile can make a lasting difference.

Building connections doesn't require grand gestures. It can begin with something as simple as sitting with someone new, asking how their week has been, or inviting them to join you for coffee after service. These small acts of kindness help create a welcoming and loving community where everyone feels seen and valued.

As we continue to gather, let's be intentional about reaching beyond our usual circles. You never know how a brief conversation might encourage someone or how a new friendship might enrich your own faith journey. Together, we can reflect the heart of Christ by opening our lives to one another.

Blessings in Christ,

"Abide in me, and I in you.

*As the branch
cannot bear fruit by itself,
unless it abides in the vine,
neither can you,
unless you abide in me".*

John 15:4
