CHURCH LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

Our Church Leadership Workshop will take place this weekend—May 1-2. We look forward to the helpful lessons that will be presented and the fellowship that will result. The theme for the weekend is Providing Stability in an Unstable World. Although church leaders will benefit greatly by attending this event, it is not limited to elders, deacons, and preachers. It is for everyone. Make your plans to attend.

TO GOD BE THE GLORY!

We always appreciate those who respond to our Lord’s invitation. This past Sunday, Patrick Crowe came forward requesting prayers on his behalf. We appreciate Patrick’s desire to serve God. Please encourage him as you have the opportunity.

May God Bless You All!

Chad Ramsey

Answer the following questions from Exodus 18:

1. Who was Moses's father-in-law?
2. What was his job or position?
3. Was this position in relationship to God?
4. Who was Moses's wife?
5. When Moses came to Egypt, what did he do with his wife and two sons?
6. When Moses related all that God did in Egypt, what was his father-in-law's reaction?
7. The next day, Moses's father-in-law criticized Moses concerning what?
8. What was his suggestion to correct the situation?
9. What was Moses's reaction to his father-in-law's criticism?
10. How was the work of judging divided?

Last week's answers: 1. No water, 2. Tempting God, 3. Smite a certain rock, 4. Water came out of the rock, 5. Amalek, 6. Whether Moses's hands were raised or not, 7. Aaron and Hur, 8. God was fighting their battle, 9. God would eventually utterly destroy the Amalekites, 10. For generations.
