Dear Church Family,

Words cannot express how thankful I am for the love and support you all have poured out for me during the passing of my wife, Sweet Sarah. Without help and expressions of love from my family my heart would have been broken. Thank you seems like such a little thing to say when you've blessed my life in such a Big Way.

Blessings & much love,

Max Mayes

Dear Church,

A Mother's Choice

By Michael Orr

A quiet prayer, a tender voice,
They grow within a mother's choice.
She feeds and waters all throughout,
The sunlit days and those without.

She starts out early from the dawn,
And in the eve her light stays on.
In nursing colds or fixing food,
Her hands still work despite her mood.

For birth does not a mother make,
But choosing what to give and take.
She gives herself, she takes the calling,
To hold the root when blooms are falling.

For every day she keeps on choosing,
Regardless of the things she's losing.
Old or young, her garden blooms,
From baby cribs to college rooms.

And then she chooses even more,
When little faces find her door.
And generations come and see,
What godly mothers ought to be.

And then, with students at her feet,
The mother's work is made complete.
By passing on through work and play,
The choice a mother makes each day.
