- How are we as a church susceptible to legalistic tendencies?
- Where does the sincerity of truth need to be applied in your life?
- How are you tempted to add righteous actions to your life in an attempt to force God's blessing on your life?
- How can you avoid the subtle attempts of the flesh to try to manipulate God's favor?
- How are you selfish, even with grace? You expect grace from God, but you don't give it freely to others.
- What rules, religious practices, or even sins in others hold you back from using the freedom of God's grace in love?
