

A Living Hope for Every Generation

I Witness: Encounters with the Risen Lord

Passage: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Rev. Bruce Persons | May 10, 2026

I. Living Hope Begins with the Resurrection (vv. 3-4)

II. Living Hope Sustains Us Through Trials (vv. 5-7)

III. Living Hope Produces Joy and Faith (vv. 8-9)

SMALL GROUP STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What stands out most to you from 1 Peter 1:3–9?
2. What is the difference between temporary hope and living hope?
3. Why is the resurrection essential to Christian hope?
4. How have trials strengthened or refined your faith?
5. What temporary things are people tempted to build their identity upon?
6. How can older and younger generations encourage one another spiritually?

PERSONAL REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. What currently threatens my sense of hope?
2. Am I building my identity on temporary things or eternal truth?
3. How has God sustained me through past trials?
4. Who helped pass faith down to me?
5. How can I encourage another generation this week?

A Living Hope for Every Generation

I Witness: Encounters with the Risen Lord

Passage: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Rev. Bruce Persons | May 10, 2026

I. Living Hope Begins with the Resurrection (vv. 3-4)

II. Living Hope Sustains Us Through Trials (vv. 5-7)

III. Living Hope Produces Joy and Faith (vv. 8-9)

SMALL GROUP STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What stands out most to you from 1 Peter 1:3–9?
2. What is the difference between temporary hope and living hope?
3. Why is the resurrection essential to Christian hope?
4. How have trials strengthened or refined your faith?
5. What temporary things are people tempted to build their identity upon?
6. How can older and younger generations encourage one another spiritually?

PERSONAL REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. What currently threatens my sense of hope?
2. Am I building my identity on temporary things or eternal truth?
3. How has God sustained me through past trials?
4. Who helped pass faith down to me?
5. How can I encourage another generation this week?