

Good News from Grace

JUNE 2026

In our time together in Individual Spiritual Direction or Group Spiritual formation the guiding truth is in Psalm 46:10 "Be still, and know that I am God!" Which is to say Be still, and know that God is God and God is present with us and all people.

Silence anchors us in prayerful listening. Prayerful listening to God is the heart of our spiritual formation.

In Spiritual Formation we will focus on being held together in God's Loving Presence for each of us. As we listen to God, we listen to each other and the earth and all that is part of God's good creation.

In the silence, we make ourselves available to receive what is given to us by God. We ask what comes to me as I listen to God.

Henri J.M. Nouwen (1932-1996) was a Dutch Catholic priest who wrote about spirituality and social justice. He offered a brief overview of God in Bread for the Journey: A Daybook of Wisdom and Faith. Nouwen describes God as Father, our Creator - God for us; as Jesus, our Savior - God with us; as Holy Spirit, our Advocate - God within us.

"God is love (1 John 4:16) and God is speaking to us, present with us always and everywhere, and sustains a loving relationship with all of us and all people even if we are not listening. So welcome to the discipline and joy of listening to God. We are all at different stages in our Spiritual journey, but God is indeed always forming us in faith and love for service and care for each other and all people.

In this ministry of Spiritual Formation, whether it is Individual Spiritual Direction or Group Formation, or a Spiritual retreat together, or a Grief support Group we will be listening together to the stirring of the Holy Spirit to recognize how God is with us, calling us, and leading us in love.

With thanksgiving to be with you in prayerful listening,
Pastor Eckert

What Do You Want?

One of the best-known and most-beloved psalms is Psalm 23, the “Shepherd Psalm.” There we learn that the Lord is our Shepherd. And since He is our Shepherd, we will not want. We will not suffer want because the Lord, our Shepherd, will lead us to green pastures and beside still waters. In other words, the Lord, our Shepherd, will provide for all that we need in both body and soul.

Yet, we live as though this is not the case. We live as though we actually suffer from want, that the Lord, our Shepherd, will not provide for all that we need. And thus, we live as though the Lord is not our Shepherd. And that means that we live as though we are not the Lord’s sheep.

When do we live as though the Lord is not our Shepherd? When we put anything else before Him and His provision for us. When we think that going to work is more important than receiving His gifts in church on Sunday (in violation of the First and Third Commandments). When we fail to give generously of the first fruits of what the Lord has provided for us because we don’t know what the future will bring (even though He has promised that He will lead us to green pastures and still waters).

We live as though we are not the Lord’s sheep when we think that the Lord is only in the business of helping those who will help themselves. We act this way because our minds are set on earthly, temporal things and not on heavenly, eternal things. We act this way because we have stopped hearing the call of our Shepherd, which comes through His Word.

Through the Word of God, the Shepherd calls us to Himself. Through the Word, the Holy Spirit gathers and enlightens us with His gifts. Through the Word, we are kept holy and nourished in the one true faith, the faith that follows our Shepherd wherever He leads us. He promises to lead us to our true home, to the land flowing with milk and honey, to a better country, not of this world, but a heavenly one.

And so, here’s the Good News: the Lord is your Shepherd, even and especially for wayward sheep. For Jesus seeks and saves those who are lost. He finds the lost sheep and carries them back to the fold. He is the Shepherd who lays down His life for His sheep. The Lord is your Shepherd. Let us live as His sheep.

Names will automatically be moved to the ongoing prayers after a month. They will be removed from the ongoing prayers after another month unless you notify us.

If you are aware of a member of Grace who could benefit from being added to the prayers, please let Pastor Chad know. ## Grace Capital Campaign

Grace is off to a great start with our capital campaign goal of $270,000. So far, we have pledges of over $170,000. The capital campaign committee's hearts are bursting with this early show of support for our building and - in turn - our ministries. Pledge cards are available in the kiosk in the narthex, on the wall in the library outside Barkley Chapel and in the Barkley Chapel narthex. The card asks the amount of your total pledge, giving you different annual options to consider for making payments. If you prefer an online pledging option, there is a pledge form available on our website at <https://www.gracecamphill.org/pages/grace-capital-campaign> as well as the opportunity for making online payments under Online Giving on the Give Tab.

It is so exciting to see what our Grace Family can achieve together. The committee will continue providing updates as the campaign and the projects proceed.

A four-year-old Mi'kmaq girl goes missing from the blueberry fields of Maine, sparking a tragic mystery that haunts the survivors, unravels a family, and will remain unsolved for nearly fifty years. July 1962. A Mi'kmaq family from Nova Scotia arrives in Maine to pick blueberries for the summer. Weeks later, four-year-old Ruthie, the family's youngest child, vanishes. She is last seen by her six-year-old brother, Joe, sitting on a favorite rock at the edge of a berry field. Joe will remain distraught by his sister's disappearance for years to come. In Maine, a young girl named Norma grows up as the only child of an affluent family. Her father is emotionally distant, her mother frustratingly overprotective. Norma is often troubled by recurring dreams and visions that seem more like memories than imagination. As she grows older, Norma slowly comes to realize there is something her parents aren't telling her. Unwilling to abandon her intuition, she will spend decades trying to uncover this family secret. For readers of The Vanishing Half and Woman of Light, this showstopping debut by a vibrant new voice in fiction is a riveting novel about the search for truth, the shadow of trauma, and the persistence of love across time."
