Introduction to the Season of the Sundays after Pentecost

The season after Pentecost Sunday, according to the calendar of the church year, begins on the Monday following Pentecost, and continues through most of the summer and autumn. It may include as many as 28 Sundays, depending on the date of Easter. This includes Trinity Sunday which is the First Sunday after Pentecost. This service booklet for St. Stephen's, however, is used from the Sunday after Trinity Sunday through to Creation Sunday, the first Sunday of September. The BCP provides proper collects and readings for the Sundays of this season. This period is also understood by some as "ordinary time," a period of the church year not dedicated to a particular season or observance. It is sometimes referred to as the "Green Season" due to the liturgical color, and hence a season of growth.

– "An Episcopal Dictionary of the Church, A User-Friendly Reference for Episcopalians", Church Publishing Incorporated

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church welcomes all persons to an open, caring Christian community that seeks to follow the example of Jesus Christ. Wherever you may be on your spiritual path, you are invited to worship, study and work with us. St. Stephen's is a congregation of families and singles, children and seniors, and a diversity of ethnicities, races, sexual orientations, interests, and backgrounds. We are followers of Jesus, guided by His teaching and example to love God and our neighbor. We welcome all people regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, racial background, mental or physical ability, recovery, political belief, economic condition, and all other expressions of what it means to be human. We invite you to worship with us and walk with us no matter where you are on your spiritual journey.

- This booklet contains the order of service and prayers and music that are used every Sunday for a certain period. There is also a smaller insert with this Sunday's hymns and readings. Hymns are in the blue book in the pew rack: The Hymnal 1982.
- We have two services on Sunday morning: 8am and 10am. At 10am, children can remain with you in the service, or participate in Sunday School classes. Ask the usher for directions.
- After the service you are invited to be seated for the Postlude music or go quietly in peace after the blessing.
- Refreshments are provided in the Parish Hall behind the church after the 10am service.

Whoever you are, and wherever you are on your spiritual journey, St. Stephen's welcomes you!

The Sermon

We receive a response to the day's readings from the Preacher.

An Affirmation of Faith

All standing and facing the altar to proclaim one of the following Affirmations of Faith.

We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named.
We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with His love.
We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high.
We believe in one God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

cf Ephesians 3

or The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;
through Him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation He came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered death and was buried.
On the third day He rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

Holy Eucharist for the Sundays after Pentecost and Trinity Sunday

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

The Prayers of the People

See the various forms of prayer found on page 13, 15, 17, or 19 of this web-based document.

The Confession and Absolution

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel.

God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against You, opposing Your will in our lives.
We have denied Your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world You have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in Your love and serve only Your will. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

The Peace

The Priest introduces the Peace, and then

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

Then the Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome, Birthdays, Anniversaries, Announcements

Birthdays

O God, our times are in Your hand:

Look with favor, we pray, on Your servant N. as s/he begins another year.

Grant that s/he may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen his/her trust in Your goodness all the days of his/her life;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anniversaries

Most gracious God,

we praise You for the tender mercy and unfailing care revealed to us in Jesus the Christ and for the great joy and comfort bestowed upon us in the gift of human love.

We give You thanks for N. and N., and the covenant of faithfulness they have made.

Pour out the abundance of Your Holy Spirit upon them.

Keep them in Your steadfast love; protect them from all danger; fill them with Your wisdom and peace;

lead them in holy service to each other and the world; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory and the Offering of the Gifts

Ascribe to the Lord the honor due God's Name; bring offerings and come into God's courts.

The Choir sings an anthem as a collection is taken for the work of St Stephen's. Representatives of the congregation bring the people's offerings of bread and wine, and money or other gifts, to the altar.

The people stand after the offerings are presented and placed on the Altar.

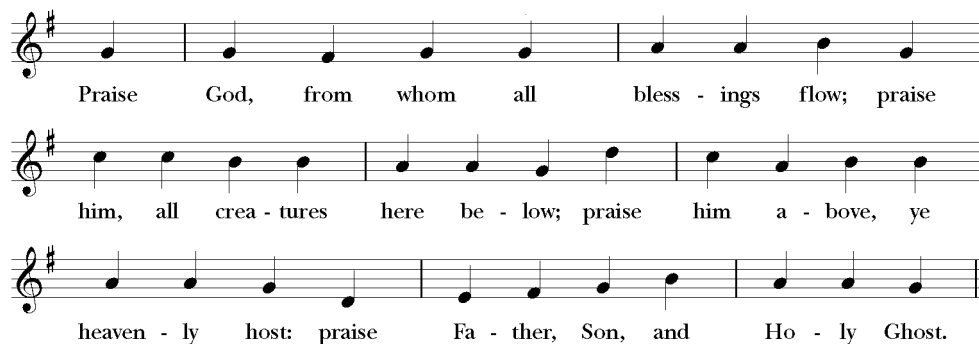

At 8am

Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the splendor, and the majesty;

for everything in heaven and on earth is Yours.

All things come from You, and of Your own do we give You.

At 10am

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Church of England Common Worship: Eucharistic Prayer H

The people remain standing.

The Lord is here.

God's Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right to praise You, God, Lord of all creation; in Your love You made us for Yourself.

When we turned away You did not reject us, but came to meet us in Your Son.

You embraced us as Your children and welcomed us to sit and eat with You.

In Christ You shared our life that we might live in Him and He in us.

He opened His arms of love upon the cross and made for all the perfect sacrifice for sin.

On the night He was betrayed, at supper with His friends

He took bread, and gave You thanks;

He broke it and gave it to them, saying:

Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

Holy God, we do this in remembrance of Him: His body is the Bread of Life.

At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine, He gave You thanks, and said:

Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins; do this in remembrance of me.

Holy God, we do this in remembrance of Him: His Blood is shed for all.

As we proclaim His death and celebrate His rising in glory, send Your Holy Spirit that this bread and this wine may be to us the body and blood of Your dear Son.

As we eat and drink these holy gifts make us one in Christ, our risen Lord.

With Your whole Church throughout the world, we offer You this sacrifice of praise and lift our voice to join the eternal song of Heaven:

Celebrant and People say at 8am and sing at 10am:

Holy Eucharist for the Sundays after Pentecost and Trinity Sunday

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, Heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho -

The Lord's Prayer

As at the Day of Pentecost, use any form or language with which you most feel comfortable.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your Name,
Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as in Heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are Yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Priest breaks the consecrated Bread. Then the following is said at 8am and sung at 10am.

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.

At St. Stephen's, all are welcome to come to the altar. If you would like to receive Communion / the Sacrament, please place your hands, palms upward, to receive the bread, and then receive the wine from the chalice. If you would prefer a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest and bow your head for a blessing from the Priest.

The Bread and the Cup are given with these words

The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation. [Amen.]

and You have made us one with all Your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of Your Spirit, that we may proclaim Your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior.
Amen.

The Sending forth of the Lay Eucharistic Visitors:

N. In the name of this congregation we send you forth bearing these Holy gifts that those to whom you go may share with us in the Communion of Christ's Body and Blood.
We who are many are One body because we share One bread, One cup.

The Episcopal Church is related to the Church of England and part of the worldwide Anglican Communion. We are part of the Diocese of El Camino Real, which is a grouping churches from San Luis Obispo County to Santa Clara County.

St. Stephen's was founded in 1867 as the first organized Protestant church in San Luis Obispo County. The original church building, locally known as a "carpenter gothic" gem, was built of Monterey Pine beams from Cambria, CA and covered with redwood on this site, which cost $10. The rich hues of our memorial stained-glass windows reflect both a pioneer heritage and a radiant future. The building today still retains the lines and flavor of the original structure.

Mission Statement

Our mission as a parish is to open our hearts to God and to share Christ's unconditional love with the world.
We do this by following three pathways:

Welcoming

We invite all to join us at every stage on their spiritual journeys.

Worshiping

We cultivate a living tradition of liturgy and a life made holy by the sacraments.

Working

We share our abundance, we strive for justice, and we accept our calling to protect God's creation.
