I Will Hope In You

By Michael Orr

When the waves have crashed against my skin,
When the sun has beat me down again,
When I stumble hard, for all I lack,
I will not turn back.

When betrayed by friend and mocked by foe,
When the stinger burrows deep and slow,
When the wounds remain this truth I know,
I will not let go.

When the walls of comfort round me quake,
When the floor below me tends to shake,
When the world tears down the things I make,
I will not break.

When all are gone except the few,
When grief has left me black and blue,
When old is done and all is new,
Lord, I will hope in You.
