First Reading

Acts 2: 1-21

<sup>1</sup> When the day of Pentecost had come, [the apostles] were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup> And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. <sup>4</sup> All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. <sup>5</sup> Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven living in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. <sup>7</sup> Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?” <sup>8</sup> And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? <sup>9</sup> Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup> Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup> Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” <sup>12</sup> All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” <sup>13</sup> But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” <sup>14</sup> But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Fellow Jews and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. <sup>15</sup> Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. <sup>16</sup> No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: <sup>17</sup> ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. <sup>18</sup> Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. <sup>19</sup> And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. <sup>20</sup> The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. <sup>21</sup> Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’ ”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsive Reading

Psalm 104: 24-34, 35b

<sup>24</sup> How manifold are your works, O LORD! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

<sup>25</sup> Yonder is the sea, great and wide, with its swarms too many to number, living things both small and great.

<sup>26</sup> There go the ships to and fro, and Leviathan, which you made for the sport of it.

<sup>27</sup> All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.

<sup>28</sup> You give it to them; they gather it; you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

<sup>29</sup> When you hide your face, they are terrified; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

<sup>30</sup> You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; and so you renew the face of the earth.

<sup>31</sup> May the glory of the LORD endure forever; O LORD, rejoice in all your works.

<sup>32</sup> You look at the earth and it trembles; you touch the mountains and they smoke.

<sup>33</sup> I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being.

<sup>34</sup> May these words of mine please God. I will rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>35b</sup> Bless the LORD, O my soul. Hallelujah!

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12: 3b-13

<sup>3b</sup> No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. <sup>4</sup> Now there are varieties of gifts but the same Spirit, <sup>5</sup> and there are varieties of services but the same Lord, <sup>6</sup> and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. <sup>7</sup> To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. <sup>8</sup> To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, <sup>9</sup> to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, <sup>10</sup> to another the working of powerful deeds, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup> All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. <sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. <sup>13</sup> For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel

John 20: 19-23

The Holy Gospel according to John the 20th chapter. Glory to you, O Lord

<sup>19</sup> When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." <sup>20</sup> After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." <sup>22</sup> When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup> If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Rite of Confirmation / Affirmation of Baptism

Presentation

Dear friends, we give thanks for the gift of baptism and for these people, one with us in the body of Christ, who are making public affirmation of their baptism.

I present Logan Jackson and Jace Tinney who desire to make public affirmation of their baptism.

Let us pray....Merciful God, we thank you for these brothers in Christ, whom you have made your own by water and the Word in baptism. You have called them to yourself, enlightened them with the gifts of your Spirit, and nourished them in the community of faith. Uphold your servants in the gifts and promises of baptism, and unite the hearts of all whom you have brought to new birth. We ask this in the name of Christ.
Amen.

Individual Faith Statements

Logan Jackson,

son of Jake & Sara Jackson

“Every word of God proves true; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.” (Proverbs 30:5)

I believe God is someone who leads us to a perfect way of living. God guides us in the right path and the way he wants us to live. God has helped me in my life by steering me back on to the right track instead of going down a road of trouble. He has become a shield to me by keeping me safe during sports, farm work, and many other risky events. I picked my verse because God will always point you in the right direction. He protects those who come to him for protection and wisdom. There have been plenty of times I thought it was surely not going to work out but sure enough God made it work. Pastor has taught us many things over the past 2 years but there is one thing that sticks out to me. Why we take communion. I think this is the most important thing he has taught us in confirmation, because to truly take communion you have to understand the reason behind it and why we do it. I hope God will continue to guide us on the right path as we move on to the next chapter of our lives.

Jace Tinney

son of Justin & Lindsey Tinney

“Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” (John 14:6)

My confirmation verse is John 14:6: “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” This verse reminds me that Jesus is always with me through every part of my life. Even when I feel lost, confused, or afraid, I know that I can trust him to lead me in the right direction. The Lord’s Prayer teaches me how to live with faith, forgiveness, and trust in God every day. It reminds me that God provides what I need, forgives me when I fail, and calls me to forgive others with love and grace. The Apostles Creed helps me understand the foundation of my faith. I believe in God the Father, Jesus Christ his only Son, and the Holy Spirit. I believe that Jesus died and rose again so that we all could have eternal life; and I know that God loves us so much that he would sacrifice his only Son for the forgiveness of our sins. Confirmation has helped me grow stronger in my relationship with God and understand that faith is not just something that I say, but something I do and live every day. I know that I will not always be perfect, but I also know that God will be there for me when I do mess up. I believe that he will continue to guide me, strengthen me, and walk beside me for the rest of my life.

Profession of Faith

I ask you to profess your faith in Christ Jesus, reject sin, and confess the faith of the church.

Do you renounce the devil and all the forces that defy God?

I renounce them.

Do you renounce the powers of this world that rebel against God?

I renounce them.

Do you renounce the ways of sin that draw you from God?

I renounce them.

Do you believe in God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Affirmation of Baptism

You have made public profession of your faith. Do you intend to continue in the covenant God made with you in holy baptism:

- to live among God's faithful people,
- to hear the word of God and share in the Lord's supper,
- to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed,
- to serve all people, following the example of Jesus,
- and to strive for justice and peace in all the earth?

I do, and I ask God to help and guide me.

People of God, do you promise to support these brothers in Christ and pray for them in their life in Christ?

We do, and we ask God to help and guide us.

Parents or family members may come forward for the laying on of hands.

We give you thanks, O God, that through water and the Holy Spirit you give us new birth, cleanse us from sin, and raise us to eternal life.

Stir up in _____ the gift of your Holy Spirit; confirm his faith, guide his life, empower him in his serving, give him patience in suffering, and bring him to everlasting life. Amen.

Let us rejoice with these brothers in Christ.

We rejoice with you in the life of baptism. Together we will give thanks and praise to God and proclaim the good news to all the world.
