God Answers Prayers In Advance

"Before they call, I will answer; while they are yet speaking, I will hear" (Isaiah 65:24).

What a comforting picture of God's care! Isaiah 65 looks ahead to the blessings God would provide for His people, and in the midst of that promise we find this beautiful assurance. God is not slow, distracted, or unaware. He knows the needs of His people before they are ever spoken. He not only hears the words that come from our lips, but also the burdens that weigh down our hearts.

Sometimes we may think of prayer only in terms of the moment when we ask. We bow our heads, express our need, and then wait for God to respond. But Isaiah reminds us that God is already ahead of us. Before we recognize the problem, God knows it. Before we form the words, God understands the need. Before we ask for help, God has the wisdom and power to provide what is best.

This does not mean that prayer is unnecessary. Scripture repeatedly teaches God's people to pray. Jesus said, "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). Paul wrote, "Pray without ceasing" (1 Thessalonians 5:17). Peter encouraged Christians to cast all their anxieties on God because He cares for them (1 Peter 5:7). Prayer is not pointless simply because God already knows. Rather, prayer is an expression of faith. It shows our dependence on God and our trust in His will.

As believers, we can take great courage from this truth. We serve a Father who is not surprised by tomorrow. He is not limited by time as we are. He knows the end from the beginning, and He is able to work through providence, Scripture, brethren, and circumstances to accomplish His will. Even when the answer is not what we expected, we can trust that God hears and responds according to His perfect wisdom.

Isaiah 65:24 should strengthen our confidence in prayer. When we kneel before God, we are not trying to inform an uninformed Father. We are drawing near to the One who already knows, already cares, and already has the power to answer. Sometimes He answers "yes." Sometimes He answers "no." Sometimes He answers "wait." But for His children, He always hears.

If you need a prayer request added, updated or removed, please use the back of the welcome card and place the card in the collection plate.
