Keep A Candle Burning

By Michael Orr

Keep a candle burning,
As we stumble through the hall,
For life is most uncertain,
When trouble comes to call.

Though light is all around us,
Every darkness has its day,
So keep a candle burning,
Let the burning lead the way.

Keep a candle burning,
In the places where you weep,
Where the hurt is full and heavy,
When the worry goes too deep.

Let hope spring forth from shadow,
Give vigil to the light,
And keep a candle burning,
Let it burn with all your might.

Keep a candle burning,
Let the wax and wick be strong,
For the days are always evil,
And the night goes on too long.

Let steady flame be tended,
Be ready for the wind,
To keep a candle burning,
Till the night comes to an end.
