

Hebrews 10:1-39
The Superior Sacrifice 3

1. The writer of Hebrews presents _____ benefits that explain why the _____ of Jesus Christ is superior to the Old Covenant _____.
2. Benefit #1: Christ's Sacrifice Takes Away _____ (Heb. 10:1–10).
3. Benefit #2: Christ's sacrifice does not need to be _____ (Heb. 10:11–18).
4. Benefit #3: Christ's sacrifice opens the _____ to God (Heb. 10:19–39).
5. The opening of the veil presents a gracious _____.
6. Let us go right _____ (draw _____)... (v. 22).
7. We must _____ ourselves spiritually to _____ with God.
8. The Old Testament priest had to go through various _____ and had to apply _____ on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16). During regular daily ministry, the priests had to _____ at the laver before they entered the _____ place (Ex. 30:18–21).
9. The New Testament Christian must come to God with a _____ heart and a _____ conscience. Fellowship with God demands _____ (1 John 1:5–2:2, Psalm 24:3-5).
10. Let us hold _____ ... (v. 23).
11. When a believer has his hope fixed on _____ and relies on the faithfulness of _____, then he will not _____. Instead of looking back, we should look _____ to the _____ of the Lord.
12. Let us consider _____ ... (v. 24) and keep _____ together... (v. 25).
13. Fellowship with God must never become _____.
14. We must also fellowship with other _____ in the local assembly.
15. It is interesting to note that the emphasis here is not on what a believer _____ from the assembly, but rather on what he can _____ to the assembly.
16. Faithfulness in church attendance _____ others and _____ them to love and good works.

17. One of the strong _____ for faithfulness is the soon _____ of Jesus Christ.
18. The only other place the word translated “assembling” (Heb. 10:25) is used in the New Testament is in 2 Thessalonians 2:1, where it’s translated “_____” and deals with the _____ of Christ.
19. In verses 26–31 we are given a _____ exhortation. This is the _____ of the five exhortations found in Hebrews.
20. It is written to _____ and follows in sequence with the other exhortations.
21. The believer who begins to _____ from the Word (Heb. 2:1–4)
- will soon start to _____ the Word (Heb. 3:7–4:13).
 - Soon, he will become _____ toward the Word (Heb. 5:11–6:20)
 - and become “_____” in his spiritual life.
 - This will result in _____ the Word, the theme of this exhortation (vv. 26-31).
22. The _____ of this “despising” is _____ sin.
23. The tense of the verb indicates that verse 26 should read, “if we willfully go on _____.”
24. This exhortation is not dealing with _____ particular act of sin, but with an attitude that leads to _____ disobedience.
25. Under the Old Covenant, there were no sacrifices for _____ and _____ sins (Ex. 21:12–14; Num. 15:27–31).
26. Presumptuous sinners who despised Moses’ Law and broke it were _____ (Deut. 17:1–7).
27. David deliberately sinned and should have been _____, but he cried out for God’s _____. He knew that even _____ sacrifices could not save him. All he could offer was the sacrifice of a _____ heart (Ps. 51:16–17).
28. How God deals with rebellion:

- a. God communicates His commands _____ so that the offender is without _____.
- b. God _____ the offender and gives him some _____ to repent (Gen. 15:12-16, Jonah 3:3-5).
- c. God Himself determines the _____ of time He gives a person to repent. He sees all _____ (evident and hidden) and perfectly knows the state of the _____ (Rev. 2:21-23).
- d. At times, a person's rebellion is prompted by _____, and God knows exactly how to deal with each person's _____ (Heb. 4:12, Isaiah 42:3).
- e. Once ample _____ have been given and the allotted _____ of grace has passed, God will deal _____ with all rebellious people (Luke 10:13, Acts 2:34-35, Heb. 10:26-31, John 15:6).

29. Dr. William Culbertson (late president of Moody Bible Institute) warned about “the _____ consequences of forgiven sins.” God _____ David's sins, but David suffered the sad _____ for many years afterward (2 Sam. 12:7–15).

30. David had “_____ the commandment of the Lord” (2 Sam. 12:9), and God _____ with him.

31. If a believer has drifted into spiritual _____ and dullness and is deliberately _____ God's Word, they should immediately turn to God for _____ and forgiveness. There is no other _____ for sin, but the sacrifice Christ made is _____ for all our sins.

32. It is a fearful thing to fall into the Lord's hands for _____, but it is a wonderful thing to fall into His hands for _____ and _____.

33. David said, “...let me fall into the hands of the _____, for his mercy is very _____. Do not let me fall into _____ hands” (1 Chron. 21:13).