

FEBRUARY RECAP

February was an incredible month filled with opportunities to love and serve our city. Through our neighborhood block parties and downtown outreach, we were able to serve over 100 families with practical support, meaningful conversations, and prayer. We are especially thankful for the amazing partners who served alongside us — a huge thank-you to:

- Tri-Beta volunteers
- Columbia Financial Outreach

Your partnership helped make our Royal Pines Block Party a huge blessing to the community!

PLANNING AHEAD FOR SPRING

Warmer weather is returning, which means we're bringing back our full outreach setups — including cookouts, expanded kids activities, and more opportunities to connect with families.

There's nothing like sharing a meal, praying with neighbors, and creating joyful spaces where people feel seen and loved.

We would LOVE for you to serve with us!
