Matthew 5:21-26

Matthew 5:21-26

[21] “You have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgment.’ [22] But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ will be liable to the hell of fire. [23] So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, [24] leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. [25] Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. [26] Truly, I say to you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny. (ESV)

Reflection Questions:

1. Is there someone in your life you have been holding in contempt? Someone you have written off, dehumanized, cultivated anger toward? What is the first step toward reconciliation — today, this week, while there is still time?
2. Have you been reconciled to God through Jesus Christ? If the answer is not yet — He is not waiting for you to have it all together. He is waiting for you. Come to the altar. The door is open. And He will help you mend every broken thing.
3. Where do you go to look for help when you are angry, upset, bitter, resentful? Do you find it in yourself, a self-help book, anger management, etc.? Take this moment to call out to the Reconciler for help, to remind you of the immeasurable love and mercy He has shown you first.
