

Measuring Your Worth In God's Eyes

Series: Created for Significance

Key Verses: Luke 15:11–31

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: Your worth is not determined by your failures, your performance, your past, or your distance from God. Your worth is determined by the extravagant love of the Father.

Have you ever wondered how God really feels about you? Not the church answer, but honestly... How does God feel about you?

Many people spend their entire lives measuring their worth by the wrong things: success, money, relationships, appearance, approval, productivity, reputation, and whether people think they're doing okay.

Luke 15 begins because religious people are upset with Jesus.

We Often Look for _____ In the Wrong Place

- Read: Luke 15:11-16. The son was essentially saying: "Father, I want what you can give me, but I don't want you."
- The son leaves home, goes to a distant country, and Jesus says he squanders his wealth in wild living.
- But the most important part of this story is not the son's rebellion. It is the Father's response.

The Father _____ Toward Broken People

- Read: Luke 15:17-24. Notice what shame does. Shame attacks identity.

Measuring Your Worth In God's Eyes

Series: Created for Significance

Key Verses: Luke 15:11–31

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: Your worth is not determined by your failures, your performance, your past, or your distance from God. Your worth is determined by the extravagant love of the Father.

Have you ever wondered how God really feels about you? Not the church answer, but honestly... How does God feel about you?

Many people spend their entire lives measuring their worth by the wrong things: success, money, relationships, appearance, approval, productivity, reputation, and whether people think they're doing okay.

Luke 15 begins because religious people are upset with Jesus.

We Often Look for _____ In the Wrong Place

- Read: Luke 15:11-16. The son was essentially saying: "Father, I want what you can give me, but I don't want you."
- The son leaves home, goes to a distant country, and Jesus says he squanders his wealth in wild living.
- But the most important part of this story is not the son's rebellion. It is the Father's response.

The Father _____ Toward Broken People

- Read: Luke 15:17-24. Notice what shame does. Shame attacks identity.

- Read: Luke 15:20. Grace doesn't just forgive your past. Grace restores your identity.
- But Jesus does not end the story with the younger brother. Because Jesus is not only speaking to rebellious people. He is also confronting religious people.

You Can Be _____

to God and Still _____ From His Heart

- Read: Luke 15:25-32
- The older brother is out in the field.
- The younger brother was lost in the far country.
- The younger brother was distant through rebellion.
- The younger brother broke the rules and left.
- This story is not ultimately about rebellion.
- But Heaven measures your worth by the love of the Father.

What Is God Speaking to me today?:

---

---

---

---

- Read: Luke 15:20. Grace doesn't just forgive your past. Grace restores your identity.
- But Jesus does not end the story with the younger brother. Because Jesus is not only speaking to rebellious people. He is also confronting religious people.

You Can Be _____

to God and Still _____ From His Heart

- Read: Luke 15:25-32
- The older brother is out in the field.
- The younger brother was lost in the far country.
- The younger brother was distant through rebellion.
- The younger brother broke the rules and left.
- This story is not ultimately about rebellion.
- But Heaven measures your worth by the love of the Father.

What Is God Speaking to me today?:

---

---

---

---