Journey of Two

By Michael Orr

Against the wind,
Set free from confinement,
By way of refinement,
With my feet on the ground.

No time to descend,
Uphill I must travel,
Lest my pathway unravel,
To this hope I have found.

Against the grain,
Fleeting comfort behind me,
Every morning will find me,
Pressed into the fight.

I will stretch, I will strain,
For my rest I have taken,
And it's time to awaken,
With all of my might.

Against the tide,
No current will take me,
No resistance will break me,
For this one thing I do.

I will always abide,
As the One who's before me,
Will always restore me,
On this journey of two.
