

Date: June 7, 2026
Speaker: Pastor Bruce Ward
Sermon: Ruth- Week 4
Scripture: Ruth 4

Redemption is not a _____ for the present; it is a _____ for the future.

Main Text: Ruth 4

Ruth begins in famine, death, and emptiness, but ends by pointing us to _____ and ultimately to Jesus

1. A patch fixes the _____; redemption secures the _____.

Some of us are content with a _____ -up faith... but Jesus did not come to _____ us. Jesus came to _____ us.

2. A patch avoids the _____; redemption _____ the cost.

Self-protection does not create the kind of _____ we think it will

3. A patch helps us _____; redemption restores what was _____.

Ruth does not give us _____ answers... but it does show us that Naomi's _____ was not the end of the story

4. A patch is _____; redemption reaches _____ than we can see.

We usually have no idea how much God is doing through our _____

So What?

1. Stop asking God only for _____.
2. Don't despise the _____ where God is preparing us.
3. Choose the _____ over the snack.
4. Anchor our _____ in the future Christ has promised.

Answer Key: patch, promise, David, moment, future, patched, patch, redeem, cost, pays, legacy, survive, empty, cheap, emptiness, temporary, father, ordinary faithfulness, patches, field, future, hope