Christ, the Sure and Steady Anchor (#606)

Christ, the sure and steady anchor, in the fury of the storm;
when the winds of doubt blow through me and my sails have all been torn. In the suff'ring, in the sorrow, when my sinking hopes are few, I will hold fast to the anchor
— it shall never be removed.

Christ, the sure and steady anchor, while the tempest rages on. When temptation claims the battle and it seems the night has won, deeper still then goes the anchor, though I justly stand accused. I will hold fast to the anchor
— it shall never be removed.

Christ, the sure and steady anchor, through the floods of unbelief. Hopeless, somehow, O my soul, now lift your eyes to Calvary! This my ballast of assurance, >>>> see his love forever proved. I will hold fast to the anchor

— it shall never be removed.

Christ, the sure and steady anchor, as we face the waves of death. When these trials give way to glory, as we draw our final breath, we will cross that great horizon, clouds behind and life secure. And the calm will be the better for the storms that we endure.

... Christ, the shore of our salvation, ever faithful, ever true.
We will hold fast to the anchor — it shall never be removed!

The Pastoral Prayer

Pastor David Bissett

☪ The Lord's Prayer (unison):

Our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory for ever. Amen.

Offertory

§The Doxology

Hymnal #384

The Scriptures: Ephesians 2:11-22

[11] Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called "the uncircumcision" by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands—[12]
remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. [13] But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. [14] For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility [15] by abolishing the law of commandments expressed in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, [16] and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility. [17] And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near. [18] For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. [19]

So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, [20] built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ
Jesus himself being the cornerstone, [21] in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. [22] In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit. (ESV)
