First Reading–Romans 5:1-8

Peace and Hope

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we¹ have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we¹ boast in the hope of the glory of God. ³Not only so, but we¹ also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

⁶You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. ⁸But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Gospel Reading– Matthew 11:25-30

The Father Revealed in the Son

²⁵At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. ²⁶Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.

²⁷“All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

²⁸“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

Prelude

The Praise!

*Call to Worship

Scott Holden

We love the Lord, for He hears our cries and answers our prayers.

We will call on him as long as we live.

Jesus said, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few.”

We come to be sent out in His name, bringing hope and healing.

Come, let us worship te Lord of the harvest.

Alleluia! We lift our voices to God’s glory.
