Matthew 5:27-30

Matthew 5:27-30

[27] “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ [28] But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. [29] If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell. [30] And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. (ESV)

Reflection Questions:

1. Where in your life do you notice yourself applying a consumer posture to people? Where does it happen most often? What decisive action should you take this week?
2. Have you ever felt that your sin had placed you beyond grace? How does Romans 8:1—“there is therefore now no condemnation”—help you see yourself now?
3. If you are struggling with lust, pray and ask a person to walk with you in your struggle.
