

Missionary Corner

Baburam is thankful for the support he's received to cover costs for his daughter's surgery. Her next surgery will likely be later this summer. The children's home in Nepal continues to nourish, house and educate about 15 children. The girls sleep at a rented apartment in a nearby house where unfortunately there are challenges with another renter. Overall, the children, many from low caste families are doing well. Please pray for the upcoming surgery, a safe place for the girls in the home to sleep, and that bank transfers continue to get through. For more information on this ministry, feel free to contact Carl Reimer.
