Matthew 5:33-37

Matthew 5:33-37

[33] “Again you have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord what you have sworn.’ [34] But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, [35] or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. [36] And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. [37] Let what you say be simply ‘Yes’ or ‘No’; anything more than this comes from evil. (ESV)

Reflection Questions:

1. Do you tend to fear people more than God, or do you fear God in the wrong way — as harsh rather than loving? What does that reveal about who you believe He is?
2. Where is there currently a difference between who you are in public and who you are when no one’s watching? What would closing that gap look like this week?
3. If integrity is something Jesus grows in you rather than something you grind out, how should that change the way you pray about your weak areas of honesty?

17. Citizens of the Kingdom: Call to Integrity

Promises? Oaths? Vows?

What does Father’s Day mean to you?

1. The loophole of oaths

2. The root of dishonesty

3. The call to integrity
