Colossians 4:2-6 – Living in Christ (Part 4)

Paul concludes the main text of his letter to the Colossians by charging them to do three things to live in Christ. These three directives remain as relevant to us as they were to the first-century Church.

Devote yourselves to prayer.

We are to proclaim the mystery of Christ.

We must be wise in our interactions with others.

We respond and apply the Word of God we have heard by living in Christ and sharing the true message of the gospel so that the gospel bears fruit throughout the whole world.

May the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it. Now May the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you. (1 Thessalonians 5:23-24, 2 Thessalonians 3:16)

Discussion Questions:

- How do you understand being devoted to something or someone? What does it mean to be devoted to prayer?
- Why should we be watchful and thankful when praying?
- What is the mystery of Christ? How can we proclaim it effectively?
- How can we be wise in our interactions with others? What does it mean for our speech to be full of grace and seasoned with salt?
- How does this passage relate to the opening passage of Paul's epistle?
- What can you do to apply these three directives in your life?
