

Date: June 28, 2026
Sermon Series: Set Apart
Speaker: Bruce Ward
Scripture: 1 Peter 1:1-12

WE ARE NOT _____, BUT WE ARE NOT _____

We are _____ exiles (1:1-2)

- The Father _____ us before we ever felt out of place
- The Spirit _____ us, even in seasons of pressure
- Jesus _____ us by His blood and calls us to _____.

We have a _____ hope (1:3-5)

- Our hope is alive because _____ is alive.
- Our inheritance is _____, _____, and _____.
- By God's power we are being _____ through faith.

We can _____ and be _____ (1:6-7)

- Peter does not minimize suffering; he measures it against _____.
- Trials do not have to define us; God can use them to _____ us.

We love the Christ we have not _____ (1:8-9)

- Believing without seeing is faith, and the outcome is the _____ of our souls.

We have received what prophets searched for and angels _____ (1:10-12)

- The Gospel we can become casual about is the Gospel heaven is fascinated by.

SO WHAT?

- Stop expecting this world to feel like _____.
- Anchor our hope in what cannot be _____.
- Let trials _____ us, not define us.
- Wake up to the _____ of the Gospel.

Answer Key: home; hopeless; elect; knows; sanctifies; cleanses; obedience; living; Jesus; imperishable; undefiled; unfading; guarded; rejoice; griefed; eternally; refine; seen; salvation; long to look into; home; taken; refine; wonder