Grace over Judgment

Scripture: Matthew 7:2

Focus: Treat others with the same grace & mercy we hope to receive

Reflection:

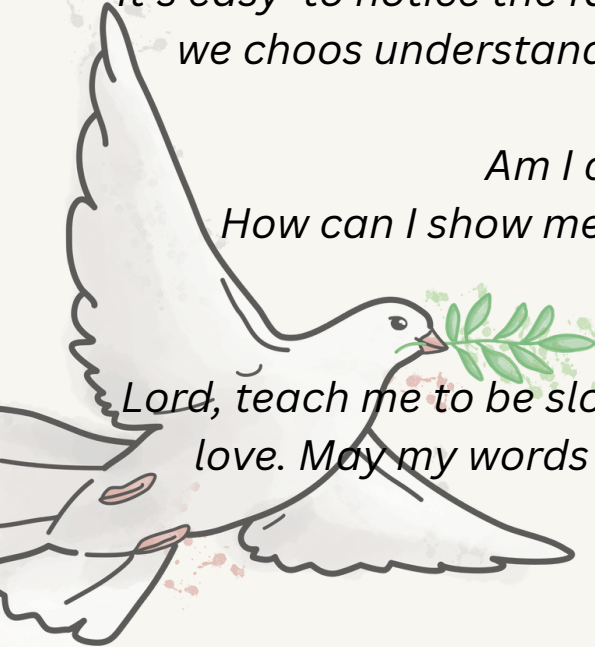

It's easy to notice the faults of others while overlooking our own. When we choose understanding and forgiveness, we reflect Christ's love.

Am I quick to judge or show grace?

How can I show mercy to others the way God has shown me?

Prayer:

Lord, teach me to be slow to judge and quick to show grace, mercy and love. May my words and actions reflect your compassion, Amen.

Weekly Challenge

This week, before making a judgment about someone, choose to respond with kindness, understanding, and grace. Look for one opportunity each day to encourage someone rather than criticizing them.

Pastor Tammy's Letter

Beloved friends, I can't begin to express the gratitude I feel for Sharon UMC and for each of you personally. We have shared many joys and laughs and a few tears. You have loved much and given much. You survived COVID, ministered to me when my mom was here, and you persevered during my pastoral change when I was co-appointed to Trinity UMC. I am a better Christian and human because of you.

Thank you for the fellowship dinner (NO one does Potluck like Sharon UMC!!), flowers, framed photo, and cards. Most of all thank you for the years of ministry, worship and fellowship. You will always be close to my heart. God bless you and keep you,

– Pastor Tammy
