Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me. I lift my lamp beside the golden door! Some come from a great big land, some come with a great big plan to be an American. This land is you and me! Some may wear a different dress, some may answer "Si" or "Yes." We know we have all been blessed. This land is you and me! Worlds apart, different as can be, the claim that's the sambas liberty. In any language we can say: "I'm for you, USA!" I come from across the sea. I come from apartment three. We're pals 'cause we both agree this land is you and me! Some skin is a different shade, some songs are uniquely played. One pledge that we all have made: this land is you and me! This land is your land, this land is my land from California to the New York island, from the redwood forests to the gulf stream waters this land was made for you and me!

*DOXOLOGY #94
